

Taking Your Contest Efforts to the Next Level On Line Resources

Receiver comparison - <http://www.sherweng.com/table.html>

More interesting information, white papers and presentations can be found at <http://www.sherweng.com>.

A better way to install PL-259 connectors can be found at <http://www.k3lr.com>

Lots of good information can be found at <http://www.w8ji.com> especially instructions on detuning towers.

For notes on beverages, BOG, etc see <http://www.qsl.net/k1fz/beveragenotes.html>.

Contest Simulators <http://www.rufzxp.net/> <http://www.dxatlas.com/MorseRunner/>

For good contest gab and links to many valuable e-mail reflectors such as cq-contest, top band, and tower talk, see <http://www.contesting.com>

Potomac Valley Radio Club Webinars – many good topics including N1MM contest software <http://www.pvrc.org/webinar/webinars.htm>

3830 Score Rumors - <http://lists.contesting.com/pipermail/3830/>

3830 Score Reporting - <http://lists.contesting.com/mailman/listinfo/3830>

For the latest country files for all contest and logging software – <http://www.country-files.com/cty/>

For N1MM contest logging program – <http://n1mm.hamdocs.com/tiki-index.php?page=HomePage>